Clan picnic July 27.—adv.
Read Shea's special shoe ad.
See the thin voile dresses at Abbott's.
New lot of paper paste just in at Hooker's.

New garments and crepe de chine waists at Abbott's.

Charles Zanetti of North Main street has returned to the city, after passing a few days in Boston on business.

Carl Nute of Manchester, N. H., who formerly engaged in the insurance business here, is revisiting acquaintances in Barre.

State Commissioner Elbert S. Brigham of the agricultural department returned to his home in St. Albans, after passing a few days in Barre on business.

Saturday, July 27, is the big day. Jump a trolley and get off at Caledonia park. The annual Clan Gordon picnic will be held on that date. Usual big features.—adv.

The savings banks and trust companies of Barre would appreciate it very much if you would bring or send your deposit books for verification at an early date. The law requires this to be done once in five years.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Whittlesley of Hartford, Conn., have been registered at Hotel Barre for a few days while the former, who is state cattle commissioner in Connecticut, attended the convention of Vermont veterinarians.

The July quota of Red Cross work has arrived and the sewing room at the Church street school building will be reopened for work next Monday afternoon. From now on it will be open every Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoon.

Subscribers to the war chest fund are reminded that they can pay their pledges from 9 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 5 p. m. every week day and Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays from 7 to 8 p. m., at Red Cross headquarters in the school building facing the common.

Mr. and Mrs. William McDonald of Addison place returned yesterday from Claremont, N. H., where they have been passing several days with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Murray. The latter is employed by the Sullivan Machinery Co.

Clerks at the Union Clothing store are in receipt of a fine lot of lake pickers, caught by Orreste Boffino, a member of the firm, who is vacationing at Highgate Springs. A line—not a fish line—which accompanied the catch states that Barre anglers are having splendid luck this month.

The insert on the first cover of the July number of the Granite Cutters' Journal is a half-tone of the figure of a woman, cut in Barre granite by E. A. Carusi of this city, a well known sculptor and carver. The Journal speaks of the statue as "an excellent and finely relieved figure."

Mrs. Olaf E. Anderson of Warren street and Miss Mildred Marmon of North Main street left the city this afternoon for New York, where they are to pass the week end with the former's son, Victor Anderson, who has been stationed at the naval training station in Pelham Bay, N. Y., for several weeks.

Dr. William Hamilton, who has been engaged by the state to do special work in the interests of the farmers this summer, returned to-day to St. Albans, after attending the veterinary convention. Dr. Hamilton is to be located in St. Albans while pursuing special work, and his colleague, Dr. R. J. Eno, is to be located in Vergennes.

William Persons, employed until recently as a motorman on the interurban traction line, is moving his household goods to Claremont, N. H., where he is employed by the Sullivan Machinery Co. He will be joined later in the month by Mrs. Persons. During his spare hours Mr. Persons plans to operate his steam jetney, an erstwhile carrier between Barre and Woodbury, on the road from Claremont to Lake Sunapee.

At the Congressional parsonage in Maple Grove Tuesday evening Miss Anna Dunham, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton E. Dunham of Bethel, and Private Clyde Blossom of the 57th Pioneers (1st Vermont Infantry) were married by Rev. F. L. Goedspeck. The couple were unattended and left immediately for their home in Bethel. The bride is a well known Bethel young woman. She was a member of the 1918 graduating class at Whitecomb high school in that town. Private Blossom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Blossom of Bethel, is to return to Camp Wadsworth, near Spartanburg, S. C., at the end of a 15 days' furlough.

Odd Fellows of Hiawatha lodge, Canton Vinton and auxiliary organizations, including members of the Rebekah lodge, enjoyed an interesting ceremony last evening when the decoration of a chair, an honorary degree, was conferred on Mrs. O. J. Dodge, Alexander Duncan, acting as colonel, represented Canton Vinton in the presentation. After the ceremony four Odd Fellows were mentioned in connection with the presentation of 25-year veteran jewels. Frank W. Jackson, past grand representative of the order in Vermont, presented the jewels in person to Willis F. Howland, Harry P. Willey and Murdoch M. McIver. Angus A. Smith, who was unavoidably absent, will receive his jewel later. During the evening the women served refreshments of ice cream and cake.

The feeling that the 57th Pioneers stationed at the present time at Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, S. C., are to be sent overseas for duty within a short period of time is expressed in several letters received recently by relatives in this city of several of the young men attached to this division. A part of the old 1st Vermont regiment, together with the regimental band, was made a part of this division several months ago, a large number of the old headquarters company, which was recruited from young men of this city shortly after the outbreak of hostilities, being members of the division. The troops were stationed for some time at Fort Ethan Allen at Burlington, after which they were sent to Westfield, Mass., while they were again transferred from that place to Charlotte, N. C., and then to their present camp.

Regular communication of Granite chapter, No. 35, F. and A. M., Friday, July 19, at 7:30 p. m. Per order W. M.

Special meeting of Iroquois tribe, No. 16, Friday, July 19, at 7:30. Business degree rehearsal.

Mrs. Albert Clarke arrived in the city last evening from Hartford, Conn., to visit several days with friends and relatives.

Miss Marion Carroll of Bolster avenue returned to the city last evening from Bethlehem, N. H., where she has been visiting during the past three weeks with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson returned to their home in Boston this morning after having been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Wheeler of the East Montpelier road.

John Devereux of Northfield and Harold Sault of Randolph, both of whom were graduated from Goddard seminary a few weeks ago, were visitors in the city to-day.

Mrs. W. A. Livermore, who has been visiting with friends and relatives in the city during the past several days, returned to the forenoon to her home in Waltham, Mass.

D. J. Morse of Tremont street returned to the city last evening from a business visit of several days in New York City and Boston, in the interests of the A. P. Abbott company.

Private Samuel Lavoie of Manchester, N. H., a former athlete at Goddard seminary, who is assigned to duty with the signal corps in Burlington, called on friends in Barre yesterday.

Miss Nellie Swasey of Waterbury, a former resident of this city, is spending a few days in the city, while demonstrating the various methods of wheatless cooking. Miss Swasey went this forenoon to Williamstown, where she will give a demonstration this afternoon.

It was children's night at Cobble Hill grange Tuesday evening, and they presented the following excellent program: Singing, "America," with tableau effect; piano solo, Florence Summers; recitation, Allen Tracy; dialogue, four girls; song, "Dearest We'll Tell," 11 girls; piano solo, Barbara Smith; recitation, Wilson Thurston; Scotch dances, with bagpipe accompaniment, Frances and Fordyce Ritchie; recitation, Laura Baker; song, James Summers; tableau, "The Greatest Mother," little "Budge" Smith and Myra Wales; dialogue, "The Patriotic Hoe," six girls; exercise for two children, Marjorie and Leavitt Holt; song, Barbara Smith; recitation, Royal Thurston; violin solo, Marjorie Smith; song, Lucy Dickie; piano solo, Lucy Cummings; playette, "Little Boopie Has Lost Her Sheep," Laura Baker, Irene and Fordyce Ritchie, George Bassett, Marjorie Smith, Lucy Dickie, Allen Daffine, Florence and Gertrude Summers; singing, "The Star Spangled Banner," all the children. At the conclusion of the program, the children were treated to ice cream and cake. All the children did their part in an excellent manner and gave their elders an evening of much pleasure. The next meeting will be Aug. 6. The first and second degrees will be conferred.

Webster Miller has commenced work in the state highway department.

John Parker and C. H. Stuart of Melrose were in the city to-day.

Elmer Johnson of the food administration has been at his home in St. Albans for a couple of days.

Miss Lamotte Smith has arrived home from Boston to recover from rheumatism which has caused her much pain in the last few weeks.

Registrars who have been getting a deferred classification because they have been employed in the government arsenal at Springfield, Mass., will not enjoy that classification any longer because the government has replaced the registrars with older men or women, and the local boards in Vermont have been notified that the boards need not defer any registrant further on the grounds that they are working in the arsenal to help the government make ammunition. One of these men from Washington county has been so employed.

The district board of exemption is holding a session to-day. The members arrived last evening and several papers were gone over during the evening while many more were disposed of to-day. There are but few changes in the classifications from what the local board is making. The most of these changes are similar to those which the board acted upon before. It is probable that a few changes will be announced at the end of the session.

Dr. S. M. Kinsaus of Newark, N. J., is visiting at the home of F. E. Grouse.

John E. Weeks, director of state institutions, was here yesterday and to-day relative to the work in his department. He has not as yet selected the man who will take Dr. F. B. Russell's place at the home for feeble-minded in Brandon, attempted to the city last evening from Bethlehem, N. H., where she has been visiting during the past three weeks with friends.

Sheriff Tracy Files Papers for Renomination.

Frank H. Tracy this morning filed the petition for his renomination as sheriff of Washington county with County Clerk L. C. Moody. There were about 275 names on the petition, while he only needed about 80 to correspond with the statutes as amended in 1917. Petitions are in circulation for Judge G. H. Dale, Judge Charles Dana, Oscar Eaton of Waitsfield and L. R. Wells of Middlesex for the nomination as judges, while there are petitions in the rural sections for four men to be nominated as senators. E. C. Pitkin of East Montpelier, D. B. Dwinell of Calais, Henry Hill of Waterbury and Jacob Bates of Moretown. Judge Frank Martin's petition for renomination as judge of probate is being filed.

The police were called to upper Barre street Thursday evening because of some trouble near the Perolini houses in which it was alleged that George Bruno, who paid a fine the first of the week for breach of the peace, was again having trouble. The officers found when they reached the place that Bruno had left for Barre on the trolley car that left just as they were arriving at the place.

Judge and Mrs. E. M. Harvey, Miss Gladys Tupper and Miss Helen Harlow went to Burlington to-day to attend the conference relative to home service of the Red Cross.

Webster Miller has commenced work in the state highway department.

John Parker and C. H. Stuart of Melrose were in the city to-day.

Flag Raising Big Success—Entertainment Followed.

The service flag raising and entertainment Wednesday evening brought together about five hundred people from this and surrounding towns. The Barre bag-pipe band gave an open air concert, after which the flag, containing twenty-one stars, was flung to the breeze by Private
